Introduction to the Gospel 3rd Sunday of Easter

Today's long Gospel has three movements - the extraordinary catch of fish, the meal on the beach with the obvious Eucharistic overtones and the dialogue with Peter which contains his commissioning as leader of the flock. The great haul of fish of so many varieties indicates that the good news of the gospel will take root in many nations and bring many converts but only with the help of the Lord. Alone, they had been unsuccessful! What are you able to achieve now that you have the Lord with you? In the second movement, the open air meal indicates that Jesus still nourishes his disciples and evokes the many meals that Jesus shared with his followers. In what ways does the Eucharist continue to nourish those who follow the risen Lord? Jesus' dialogue with Peter establishes that love is the basis from which a genuine Christian ministry of service springs. Along with other gospel texts, this third movement reinforces the role given to Peter as the future leader of the flock, the one who is given the task of caring for the sheep after the Shepherd has gone.
