"Those who love me will keep my word"

John 20: 19-23

Introduction to the Gospel Pentecost

The Christian imperative to love as Jesus loved is again at the centre of the Gospel today. To love God and therefore to love the Son can be shown by keeping the commandments which Jesus gave; that is to say, by living life as a Christian should. To help in this task, Jesus promises to send the Advocate, who will teach and remind the followers of Jesus of all that has been said to them. The first reading of today's Pentecost Mass tells the story of that fateful day in Jerusalem. One of the things emphasised is that when 'they were filled' with the gift of the Holy Spirit the disciples were able to overcome barriers and divisions and to 'preach about the marvels of God' to people from all parts of the world. Coming to faith is not so much acquiring a new set of beliefs about God as it is discovering God's existence within the realities of our daily lives. The gifts and fruits of the Holy Spirit help us to be more attuned to the actions of God in our lives and in our world. How do you see the Holy Spirit in our community?

Today's Readings

1st reading:

Acts 2:1-11

They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak different languages.

Psalm: 103:1,24,29-31,34

2nd reading:

1 Corinthians 12:3-7,12-13

The spirit of God dwells in you.

Gospel:

John 20: 19-23

If you love me you will keep my commandments.
