New Mass Times Survey – Coming Soon!

For 6 months we have trialed the change in Mass times at MPH and St Ignatius and, as promised, we would now like to give you an opportunity to provide feedback on how the new Sunday Mass times are working for you and your family.

A short Survey will be available on the weekends of 5 & 6 and 12 & 13 of November.

Details of how to complete the Survey will be announced during Mass and in next week's Newsletter. Your feedback is important to us so we encourage you and your family to participate.

Many thanks! MPH & St Ignatius Parish Council

Celebrating the life of the Saints

Next week we begin the month of November by celebrating 2 major Church celebrations, namely All Saints Day and All Souls Day. The church with these celebrations invites us to realize that our lives in this world are temporary. But this temporary life needs to be filled with all kindness. Because every good deed, will direct and lead us to the path to holiness. May the life of the saints, the virtues of those who have died become an inspiration for us in living our lives in this world, until the time we are united with God, and meet them in the Kingdom of Heaven.

“Apart from the cross, there is no other ladder by which we may get to heaven.”

St. Rose of Lima.
