14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Gospel: Matthew 11.25-30
“I am gentle and humble in heart.”

Welcome to Mother of Perpetual Help & St Ignatius Parishes

This reading from Matthew’s Gospel is an example of the wisdom teachings of Jesus. Today’s reading Jesus thanks the Father for revealing His mysteries to the little ones and hiding them from the wise and the intelligent. As we join Jesus in thanking the Father for revealing Himself to us, let us ask for the grace to be among the little ones, able to thank God and to wonder at His greatness, especially the greatness of His love and compassion for us all. “Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest.”

Let this gentle, yet powerful invitation touch our hearts. As we listen to its echoes, we try to get in touch with our weariness, the heavy burdens we are carrying, and respond with trust that we will find rest.
